

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. THE HEMENWAY FAMILY.

V.

My Grandfather, Hiram Hemenway, collected and recorded in the old Family Bible the record of his father's family and my mother continued this record. In order to insure its preservation I had it set in type. When nearly completed I secured a copy of Rev. Asa Hemenway's book and obtained additional records never before published. I have therefore copied a few of the lines carrying the name of Hemenway, from Rev. Asa's book, to enable me to show the ancestry of the unpublished lines.

If members of the family will furnish me with any additional records, I will publish same in a later edition as well as correct any errors if advised in regard to same. I have also added several pages of unpublished Newton records which will appear in a later edition of my Newton Family.

I trust the book may be of interest to the family and hope before many years a more complete record can be published.

CLAIR ALONZO NEWTON,

RUFUS HEMENWAY.

While it is not my desire to trace the ancestry of my Grandfather, Rufus Hemenway, I will say the Vermont Family of this name have traced the line back to Ralph of Roxbury 1634, to Daniel of Shrewsbury 1750. Ebenezar settled in Vermont.

The first U. S. census taken in 1790 show eleven heads of family by the name of Hemenway in Massachusetts, all of them either in Hampshire or Worcester Counties, their names being David, Ichabod, 2 Joshua's and 1 Joshua Jr., Asa, Phinehas, Salvenas, Thomas, Simon and Rufus. He was born in North Hampton, Mass., March 30, 1764, and had only one brother, Silas, who was a Sea Captain. Nov. 5, 1789, Rufus married Lydia Brown, born March 2, 1833, and in 1790 they were living at West Hampton in Hampshire Co., Mass. They had:

Sally, Born April 22, 1791, Died Jan. 10, 1865.

Liberty, " April 4, 1793.

Lydia died Oct. 10, 1795 and on Jan. 7, 1796, Rufus married second wife, Polly Curtis, born July 28, 1772. She died Sept. 12, 1840. Rufus died Dec. 22, 1839. They had:

Lydia, Born Jan. 30, 1797.

Lucy, " March 15, 1798, Died Dec. 31, 1824.

Silas, " March 7, 1800, Died Nov. 29, 1883.

Lorinda, " Dec. 16, 1802.

Harvey, " Feb. 26, 1804, Died Dec. 20, 1840.

Rufus Jr., " May 23, 1806.

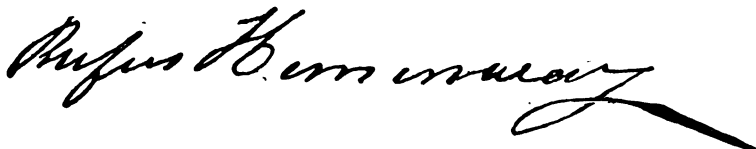

Hiram, " Jan. 7, 1808, Died Oct. 25, 1898.

The family Bible also shows Patty Ann Woodruff, born Aug. 30, 1818, but I am unable to advise the Connection.

How long Rufus lived in Massachusetts I do not know, but he was living in Herkmer County, New York when my father, Hiram, was born, and later lived in Pendelton, Niagara County, N. Y. and at Eden in same county. In 1837 he moved to Buffalo, N. Y., where he resided until his death. Father told me that Grandfather was a very fine fife player and that he joined the army in the Revolutionary war when only a boy, to play the fife.

His original application for pension is on file in Washington, D. C., I. S. C. Survivors File 43662, Rev. War, shows he enlisted at Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 1775, for 1 year, as Private, Gapt., Jonathan Childs; Colonel, John Nixon, and again, Dec. 31, 1776 to 1783 as Fife Major and Music Master, Capt., Nathan Watkins; Colonel, Brewer and Jackson.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Rufus Hemenway". The signature is written in dark ink and features a long, sweeping underline that extends to the right.

April 18, 1818, his claim of $8.00 per month was allowed. He stated his age was 57, that he resided at Eden, N. Y. and in 1820 he gave his family as his wife Polley, aged 48, and children, Lucy 22, Harvey 15, Rufus 13, Hiram 12. The Treasury Dept. shows Certificate 1244 issued June 30, 1818, under Act March 18, 1818, at New York Agency and sent to C. H. Townsend, Esq., Buffalo, N. Y. The Records in the War Dept. at Washington show he enlisted Feb, 5, 1777, for 3 years, in Capt. Ward's Company, 9th Mass. Regiment, Colonel, James Wesson. Transferred Feb. 1, 1778, to Capt. Watkin's Company, 12th Mass. Regiment, Colonel, Sam'l. Brewer. Last reported on a roll of Capt. Donnell's Company, dated West Point, Oct. 2, 1779. He also enlisted July 21, 1780, as a private, to serve 9 months, in Lieutenant Colonel's Company, 12th Mass. Regiment, and was discharged Jan. 1, 1781. He is further shown as a fifer in Col. John Greateon's Co., 3rd Mass. Appointed July 13, 1780, to serve 6 months and was discharged Dec. 4, 1880. I do not remember of ever seeing him but I do remember of father and mother leaving me with a neighbor when they went to his funeral. He was buried at Buffalo, N. Y. In later years the place where he lived was shown me.

Rufus born May 23, 1806, married Emily Bird, born Dec. 24, 1808. They had three children, two died in infancy and Henry B. Hemenway who lived at 933 Washington St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Rufus Jr. died 1852.

Henry B., born March 17, 1843, died April 1, 1908. Married 1st wife Eleanor M. Reeves, Sept. 1863. She was born in Buffalo, Aug. 11, 1843, died Oct. 12, 1868.

One daughter, Ella Emily, born Sept. 9, 1864., who married James N. Weatherston, Aug. 12, 1902.

Henry's 2nd wife lives at the old home, 933 Washington Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

First Coin—Pine Tree Shilling.

In 1845, when I was 12 years old, I was given a blank book to be written in by my friends. Aunt Emily wrote:

To Mary:

When virtue bids the earth adieu,
And rises to its native skies,
It leaves a greatful fragrance here
That never, never dies.

May it be thus with thee, is the prayer of your affectionate,

Emily B. Hemenway

After page 8 was in type, I received a letter from Henry Hemenway's daughter and I find he was married 3 times. Married 2nd wife, Nellie Cheney in 1875. She died 1877. 3rd wife, Phoebe E. Southwell.

When I was small, our family lived for some time with Uncle Rufus Hemenway. I remember Aunt Emily would frequently say, "Look happy Henry," and he would always smile in return.

William Otley Hemenway

Aunt Sally married Mr. Seeley of Syracuse, N. Y., and they had one daughter, Martha, who married Sallsbury and lived in Beloit, Wis., where we often visited them.

Aunt Lydia married Samuel Peek, Eden, N. Y. They had Charles, Lucy and Silas.

My two cousins wrote in my autograph book as follows:

May Heaven's choicest blessings send
 On thee kind friend of mine;
 May truth to thee her soft light lend
 And o'er thy pathway shine.

Lucy H. Peek.

While I exist my chief delight
 Shall be to render good
 And remember Thee.

Charles Peek, Esq.

The following letter received from Cousin Silas H. Peek:

Eden, Sept, 11th, 1912.

My Dear Cousin:

Some time ago I received a letter from you and was very glad to know that I had a living cousin that thought of me. I thought then I would answer it immediately but I simply neglected it from day to day until I am ashamed of myself. I am still living in Eden, the town in which I was born nearly ninety-one years ago. My father's family are all gone except myself. My wife died a little over two years ago, which leaves me very lonely and to mourn the greatest loss of my life. I have three children, Chloe, Sarah and Frank, Chloe has one daughter, Sarah. Frank has son and daughter. Frank lost his wife five years ago. The daughter keeps his name.

I am keeping my own home at Eden Center. I am keeping the same woman that has been with us for nearly seven years, have good care. I am having very good health for one of my age, take care and have a splendid garden, keep a horse and take care of that, and was foolish enough to buy me an auto and run that for a while, but made up my mind that was going a little too far for a boy of my age and sold it. Now cousin don't treat me as I have you, but let me hear from you soon. I would be glad to have you come and see us, and I think you have friends in Boston that would be glad to see you.

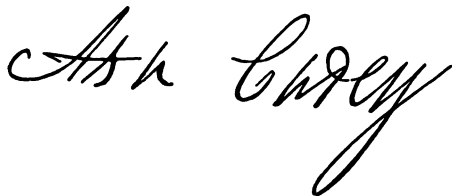

I am a poor hand to write. Excuse all and write soon and come and see me.

Yours affectionately,

SILAS H. PEEK.

HIRAM HEMENWAY

was born Jan. 7, 1808, at Utica, New York. Married Aurelia W. Cary, Sept. 6, 1829, and lived at Boston, Erie Co., N. Y. Mother was born Oct. 12, 1810. She was a daughter of Asa and Damarius Hiscock Cary.

Asa Cary was born April 1, 1770, at Deerfield, Mass., where he married Grandmother. Their union was blessed with 12 children, one died in infancy and Sylvia, Truman, Sylvester, Harriet, Van Ransler, Joseph Damarias, Lodurskey, Aurelia, Elmina and Asa.

Uncle Truman was a soldier in war of 1812.

Uncle Asa, born 1822, died at Pecatonica, Ill., at age of 88.

Aunt Elmira was the mother of Major Melville Wilkinson, killed by Indians at Leech Lake, Minn., in 1898.

Grandmother Cary was born at Compton, N. H., in 1772, later lived at Conway, N. H. She married Asa Cary in 1790 and died Apr. 17, 1863.

My father, Hiram, lived at Buffalo, N. Y., employed with Uncle Silas after leaving Boston. My mother, Aurelia Hemenway, contracted consumption and father took her to Freeport, Ill., in hopes of benefiting her but here she died March 30, 1858. She wrote sometime before her death to father as follows:

Lancaster, May 1st, 1857.

My dear Husband:

I presume you are capable of realizing the Emotion of Love I feel for my Family and wish to leave them a little present in token of my Love for them—But a little of the earthly treasure, Oh how small compared to a Dower in Heaven but this we can not bestow none but the Heavenly Father.

The one thousand dollars you gave me you will be so kind as to divide equally between the three dear ones whom God hath lent unto us—Oh that they may ever prove a blessing and a comfort to their dear father as they ever have to me.

June 20th, 1857.

The small sum that is due from my father's estate I wish to have it equally divided between you four and you can spend it for something you can keep as a present from me. My clothes Mary & Lorinda can divide to suit themselves.

Our Furniture & C. you will of course enjoy as long as you live and then the children that are left will divide it equally.

Aurelia Hemenway

Her death was my first great sorrow. She was a good mother and we thought we could not give her up. My husband was preaching at Lancaster, N. Y. in 1860 and here father met Eliza M. More, born Aug. 27, 1837. She married him April 25, 1861. She died Sept. 10, 1896.

E. M. Hemenway

Hiram Hemenway died Oct. 25, 1898 and is buried by side of mother and Eliza at Freeport, Ill.

Children of Hiram and Aurelia Hemenway:

Mary Aurelia, born Aug. 13, 1833.

Hiram Cary, " April 6, 1836.

Lorinda Damaris, " Sept. 12, 1843.

HIRAM CARY HEMENWAY.

My brother Hiram was born at Eadon, N. Y., April 6, 1836. Married Sarah M. Brown, Nov. 18, 1857, at Aurora, N. Y. During the Civil War, Hiram was with the Union army, selling goods to the soldiers, later through his cousin, Sylvester Cary, was appointed Northern Agent of a railroad, now a part of Ill. Cent., and lived in Evanston, Ill. For the health of his daughter May, who had contracted consumption, he moved to St. Paul, Minn., and went into business for himself, in wholesale fruit and commission, first with a partner named Hull and later alone. May's health did not improve and he went with her to Los Angeles, Cal., where she died.

Your Brother & Uncle
H C Hemenway

Hiram continued his business in St. Paul for some years, but in about 1895 he sold out and moved to Los Angeles, Cal., where he had an orange ranch.

Hiram C. died March 13, 1907.

Sarah M. died Nov. 1908.

Both buried in Los Angeles. They had:

May L., " Aug. 2, 1870, " Nov. 7, 1887.

Edward and Belle are buried in Freeport, Ill., May in St. Paul, Minn. Grace married Chas. Ernest Price, Oct. 1, 1891. They have one son, Harold, and live in Los Angeles, Cal.

LORINDA D. HEMENWAY.

My sister Lorinda was born Sept. 12, 1843. I do not remember whether we were living at Boston or Eadon, N. Y., when she was born. I know we lived in Boston Corners, N. Y., when she was small, for I remember drawing her on a little wagon about a half mile or a little more to Grandpa Cary's when Aunt Lodurskey visited there. On Aug. 21, 1861, Lorinda married Orton G. Clark. They lived at Freeport and Coral, Ill., Elwood, Ia., and Lime Springs, Minn., where Lorinda died, May 12, 1895. Both brother Hiram and I were with her in her last sickness.

Children of Lorinda and Orton Clark:

Carrie married Charles Russell and lives at Barnesville, Colo. They have:

Myrtle Lucille, Born Nov. 18, 1900.

Viva Lorinda, " July 3, 1906.

MARY AURELIA HEMENWAY

was born Aug. 13, 1833, at Boston Corners, N. Y., at Grandmother Cary's, the same house where mother was born and nearly all of her brothers and sisters. I am told the house has been taken down and nothing is now left of the old place as it used to be, except the little brook that ran near the house. On Aug. 20, 1851, at the close of a Missionary meeting, I was married to Rev. Alonzo Newton, who was In 1881 Rev. Asa Hemenway published a genealogical record of the descendants of Daniel Hemenway of Shrewsbury, Mass. This record is very complete, even to the descendants of the female lines. At this date 1912, Asa's son, L. H. Hemenway, M. D., Manchester, Vt., still has the books for sale.

Rev. Asa Hemenway was a missionary to Siam in 1839 and his book should be in the hands of all members of the Hemenway family. I copy a part of his introduction from pages 7, 8 and 9 and also am compelled to copy the male lines from his book to connect later lines. His aim was to publish line of Daniel Hemenway, my desire is to get all possible lines of the American Family of Hemenway.

Ralph Hemenway married in Roxbury, Mass., Elizabeth Hewes, July 5, 1634, and had Mariah, born April 24, 1635, buried May 4, Samuel born June 1636, Ruth born Sept. 21, 1638, John born April 27, 1641, Joshua born April 9, 1644, Elizabeth born May 31, 1645, married Holbrook, Mary born April 7, 1647, died 1653, Ralph died June 1678, and his wife Feb. 2, 1684-5 age 82.
